An Individual must qualify for membership, is the Primary Member with voting rights and must sign the Application for Membership.

INDIVIDUAL ACCOUNT WITH BENEFICIARIES: PAYABLE ON DEATH (POD) ACCOUNT — Fill out the Single/Joint Membership Application and the Beneficiary Information Form

An Individual Account with beneficiary(ies). The Individual must qualify for Membership, is the Primary Member with voting rights and must sign the Membership Application. Note: the beneficiary(ies) has/have no rights to the account until the death of the Primary Member. On the death of the Primary Member the proceeds of the share account shall rest in and be payable to the named beneficiary(ies) as designated here, equally. While living, the Primary Member retains the right to redeem all or any part of the Share Account.

JOINT WITH RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP ACCOUNT – Fill out the Single/Joint Membership Application

Two or more people on account each have equal rights and responsibility for the account. The Primary Member must be in the field of Membership and will have voting rights. All account owners must sign the Membership Application. To change ownership, once the account is established, the account must be closed and a new one opened.

NOTE: If there are more than 2 Joint Owners, use the Additional Joint Owner Form to list additional Owners.

JOINT ACCOUNT WITH BENEFICIARY(IES) – Fill out the Single/Joint Membership Application and the Beneficiary Information Form

A Joint With Right of Survivorship Account with beneficiary(ies). The beneficiary(ies) has/have no rights to the account until the death of all account owners (Primary and Joint). On the death of all account owners (Primary and Joint) the proceeds of the share account shall rest in and be payable to the named beneficiary(ies) as designated here, equally. While living, the Primary Member or Joint Owner(s) retain the right to redeem all or any part of the Share Account.

FIDUCIARY (CUSTODIAL) ACCOUNT – Fill out the Fiduciary \(Custodial\) Membership Application.

This is an individual Account with an Adult (Custodian, Guardian, Representative Payee, Executor/Executrix) managing funds for the actual account owner of the funds. The Minor, Ward or Recipient of Social Security funds must qualify for membership and is the Primary Member. The Deceased must have been a Member or all beneficiaries of the estate must be Members. The estate is the Primary Member. The Custodian, Guardian, Representative Payee or Executor/Executrix must enclose a copy of their valid driver's license or State ID and include a copy of the owner's Social Security card or birth certificate (for Estate accounts include a copy of the IRS Employer Identification Number form instead). In addition, for Guardianship Accounts a copy of the Letters of Guardianship must be included, and for a Representative Payee Account, a copy of the letter from the Social Security Administration naming the Representative Payee must be included. For a Minor's account a Successor Custodian may be named, but will have no authority over the account until the Custodian is deceased, or legally declared incompetent. The Custodian, Guardian, Representative Payee or Executor/Executrix must sign the Membership Application.

LIVING TRUST - Fill out the Living Trust Application

A trust is an estate-planning tool used primarily to avoid the delays and costs of the public probate process. An individual will typically work with an attorney or professional estate planner, outside Taleris Credit Union, to create a trust agreement. Upon creating the trust, the individual transfers title of their Credit Union assets to be held under the trust.
